YANKEE POLOISTS HARD AT IT

Lively tilt in a practice game between candidates for the American polo team, which will defend the international polo trophy against the British challengers on Long Island in the work of both veterans and new players has been such as to cause Couch Harry Payne Whitney, former captain of the Big Four, to predict that the Yankees will have an easier this year than in the tournament of two years ago, when the dashing play of bimself, the Waterbury brothers and Milburn completely bewildered the English players and their posies.

Tigers Turn Tables on Petersburg and Win Game by Score of 3 to 2.

Petersburg, Va., May 1.—The Tigers turned the tables on the Champs this afternoon, defeating them by the score of 3 to 2. Inability to hit Hill, the Tigers' twirler, was the main cause. In the ninth the Champs gave the Tigers a scare and came near winning the game, when, with two men on bases, Howel! hit to deep centre, scoring Jackel, Moran threw wild to catch Damrau at third, and Damrau scored. Howell attempted to score on the throw, and was thrown out at the plate by Irmsbher, who made a beautiful throw from the left fence to the plate.

Austin was hit hard by the visitors, but the four errors made by his team was responsible for the runs. The score:

tation as sluggers, and the contest should be hard fought.

The locals left in a crippled condition, however, owing to the fact that some of the regular players have positions for Saturdays. Scott, the first sacker; Fletcher, a catcher, and Pollard, the regular shortstop, did not accompany the team, but Coach Frank Bigbey will double up with pitchers and substitutes and will strive to secure an infield combination, backed by fast outfielders, which will make the Academy lads light hard to down.

The Cadets will be entertained to-night at the academy with a dance and will return to Richmond some time to-morrow. Those to make the trip are Asher, catcher; Hierholzer and Curran, pitchers; Amos, shortstop; Overman, first base; S. Parsons, second base; N. Parson, third base; West, left field; Streat, centre field; Tucker and Williams, right field; Leo Kain, manager; Frank Bigbey, coach.

CHIEF JOHNSON, whose action in jumpting to the Federal League has severely handicapped Manager Charley Herzog in his work of whipping the Cincinnati team into a winning combination.

Chicago, May 1.—The Cubs were helpless before Robinson's superb pitching, and fell easy victims to the Cardinals to-day, 2 to 6. Pierce also pitched well, but his bases on balls enabled St. Louis to score both of their runs. A triple play by Chicago in the second inning featured. With the bases full Johnston made a beau-tiful catch of Sayder's seemingly safe wallop, and the ball was flashed to Leach, thence to Zimmerman for the other two put-outs. Score: Other two put-outs.
